

4. The person so appointed shall, before entering upon the duties of his office, and annually thereafter, give bond to the State of Maryland, with such security as shall be approved by the judge of the Circuit Court for Allegany county, in the sum of fifteen hundred dollars, with the following condition, or to the following effect: Now the condition of the above obligation is such, that if the above bound — — shall well and faithfully discharge the duties of superintendent, and shall pay over, lay out and expend all moneys which he may receive as the superintendent of that part of the United States' road within the limits of this State, as directed by law, then the above obligation to be void, otherwise to be in full force and virtue in law.

5. The salary of the toll-gatherer at the gate between Frostburg and Cumberland, shall be one hundred and twenty-five dollars per annum; the salary of the toll-gatherer at the gate west of Frostburg, shall be one hundred and twenty-five dollars per annum; the said salary to be retained and paid out of the tolls collected on said road.

OAKLAND.

The Act of 1862, ch. 250, adds the following sections:

6. The inhabitants of the town of Oakland in Allegany county, are a body corporate by the name of the Burgess and Commissioners of Oakland, and by that name may have perpetual succession, may sue and be sued, and have and use a common seal.

7. The limits of said town, shall begin at a stone marked eight hundred and forty-one, said stone being the beginning of Military lot, number eight hundred and forty-one, and running thence north, sixty-seven degrees west one hundred and sixty perches, south twenty-three degrees west two hundred perches, south sixty-seven degrees east ten perches to the summit of the "Hooppole Ridge," thence with the summit of said ridge, south sixty-seven degrees, east one hundred and fifty perches; north twenty-three degrees, east one hundred and seventeen perches; thence to the place of beginning; the commissioners of the town